

Please leave the Indiana phone privacy act in place. Our family and our elderly family members are very pleased with the time and peace that have been improved through this law. This law is a blessing to all who have utilized it.